SUPREME COURT REVERSES CASE

A remittitur has been filed with the clerk of the district court, in which the supreme court of the state reverses the judgment of the district court in the case of Louise Conway against the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company and remands the case back for new trial.

In this case judgment for the plaintiff was given in the sum of about $2000, the defendant company appealing to the supreme court on grounds of error. In the trial of the case it was shown that the plaintiff stepped between two cars at Lagoon and was injured, the contention being that the cars were crowded and poorly lighted, and, also, that the company was careless in having cars with so great a space between them.
